
Title: A Journal

Author: Jared.

DAY 1

I finally managed to get the Hag's morph recipe. I'm eager to see if it works as well as I hope. If I succeed, Tomas will be so proud of me! He will be blown away!

DAY 2

I retained the services of Leto and Carl to be the first testers. Something went wrong. They morphed as was intended but I can't bring them back to their human form.

DAY 3

Sam and Laura drank some of my modified potion. It almost worked. I'm close, I can feel it! Leto and Carl are getting worse though. They're growling like beasts...

DAY 4

Leto and Carl are gone. They don't seem to have a shred of humanity left. Sam and Laura will be the same soon. How did it come to this? Isham volunteered to help. He needs the money to elope with his belle. I shouldn't but I'm so close! And if I succeed, it will surely also help bring back the others to their original form. I cannot give up now.

DAY 7

They are all gone. I saw Leto in Despise with the trolls. The others too have joined creatures of their type. The gypsies

will not speak to me.
They have finally realized
that whatever I'm doing is bad. It wasn't meant to be! I couldn't bear to face Lydia. This is my last attempt. This must work or all is lost. If it fails, I hope my beloved wife will forgive me.
